

Developing Local & National Sport for All Movements Globally

Introduction

The TAFISA Reach Out program, developed with IOC support, aims to build national awareness, cooperation and strategic development of Sport for All in member and NOC countries, particularly those less developed. The TAFISA Reach Out program will bring alignment between governors and practitioners of Sport for All delivery.

Aims & Objectives

- To bring together all parties responsible for Sport for All in a member or NOC nation, including the sports, education, health, transport, media and economic sectors, amongst others,
- To build awareness of the significant positive impact of Sport for All amongst governing bodies,
- To establish meaningful cooperation within and between governors and practitioners of Sport for All delivery,
- To develop aims and objectives for the implementation of Sport for All locally and nationally, and
- To provide experience exchange opportunities.

Facts, Figures & Requirements

- Duration: One to two working days
