11 – Any Other Comments

One of my strong desire to claim “Sport for All” as a method to fulfill Olympism. Since 1919 Coubertin advocated “All Sports for All People should be based on humanitarianism and he strongly pointed out that all welfare, education and fitness in the human society are based on the development of body and mind. Therefore Sport for All should not only be considered as an activity campaign that helps a person to build a stronger and better body and fitness, but also Sport for All should be recognized as a movement that improves life style, individual’s mind and mentality, ethics and social benefits which are the core values and principles of TAFISA’s “Sport for All” activities. That’s the my commitment to serve for the further development of TAFISA.
