Resolutions

of the Participants of the TAFISA/UNESCO VIPS Training Course, Arusha, Tanzania, April 20, 2012

We, the representatives of countries and organizations listed below who participated in the TAFISA/UNESCO VIPS Training Course in Arusha, Tanzania (April 17 – 21, 2012), hereby make the following resolutions concerning the operationalization and management of TAFISA Africa and the VIPS program:

1. that TAFISA Africa as the continental TAFISA body is established.
2. that a Steering Committee in the interim period is established to manage the affairs of TAFISA Africa.
3. that the terms of reference for the operation of the Steering Committee and TAFISA Africa are as in Annex 1 attached.
4. that the Steering Committee shall be composed of the representatives from the following TAFISA member countries: Tanzania, Kenya, Burundi, Uganda, Nigeria, Botswana, Ghana and other institutions present at the Training Course.
5. that the report of the Steering Committee shall be presented, at the latest, to the forthcoming TAFISA World Congress in the Netherlands, in October 2013.
6. that the TAFISA/UNESCO VIPS program, including the adjustments as in Annex 2, shall be one of the TAFISA Africa programs.

7. that the success of the TAFISA/UNESCO VIPS program will be determined by the strength and effectiveness of each member country/organization.

8. that all the participant member countries/organizations sign each page of this resolution to authenticate it.
